2. The candidate's height will be measured as follows:—He will be placed against the standard with his feet together, and the weight thrown on the heels and not on the toes or outer-sides of the feet. He will stand erect without sagging, and with the heels, buttocks, and shoulders touching the standard; the chest will be depressed to bring the top of the head level under the horizontal bar, and the height will be recorded in inches and parts of an inch to quarters.

3. The candidate's chest will be measured as follows:—He will be made to stand erect with his feet together, and to raise his arms over his head. The tape will be so adjusted round the chest that its upper edge touches the inferior angle of the shoulder-blades below, and its lower edge the upper part of the nipples as they lie. The arms will then be allowed to hang freely by the side and care will be taken that the chest does not protrude forward or backward so as to displace the tape. The candidate will then be directed to take a deep inspiration several times, and the maximum expansion of the chest will be carefully noted.

The minimum and maximum will then be reported thus in inches, $\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{1}{2}$, or 1.

In recording the measurements, fractions of less than half an inch should not be noted.

4. The candidate will also be weighed, and his weight recorded in pounds. Fractions of a pound should not be noted.

5. The examination for determining the astigmatism of vision includes two tests; see the distinct, the other for near vision. The first test types will be used for the test for distant vision, without glasses at a distance of 20 feet, and for the test for near vision without glasses, at any distance selected by the candidate. The standards of the maximum astigmatism of vision with which a candidate will be considered fit are as follows:—

STANDARD I.

Distant vision.—V = 4/5. V = 4/5.
Near vision.—Rounds 0, 6. Rounds 0, 6.

STANDARD II.

Distant vision.—V = 4/5. V, without glasses = not below 4/5; and after correction with glasses = not below 4/5.
Near vision.—Rounds 0, 6. Rounds 1.

STANDARD III.

Distant vision.—V, without glasses = not below 4/5; and after correction with glasses = not below 4/5.
Near vision.—Rounds 0, 6. Rounds 1.

Each eye must have a full field of vision as tested by hand movements.

Squint or any morbid condition of the eye or of the lids of either eye liable to the risk of aggravation or recurrence will cause the rejection of the candidate.

Each eye will be examined separately, and the lids must be kept wide open during the test.

Inability to distinguish the principal colours will not be regarded as a cause for rejection, but the fact will be noted in the proceedings and the candidate will be informed.

The degree of astigmatism of vision of all candidates for commission will be entered in the proceedings in the following manner:—

V.D. = ...; with glasses = ...; Rounds, ...

V.N. = ...; with glasses = ...; Rounds, ...

No candidate of the standard of vision will be allowed.

7. The following additional points will then be observed:—

(a) That his bearing is good and there is no sign of lameness.

(b) That his speech is without impediment.

(c) That his teeth are in good order. His front teeth must touch in the upper jaw firmly and in the lower jaw loosely. Two of these teeth in each jaw must be sound. Well-fitted teeth will be considered sound.

(d) That his chest is well formed and that his lungs and heart are sound.

(e) That he is not epileptic.

(f) That he does not suffer from a severe degree of indigestion or of nervousness. A candidate who has been successfully operated on will be accepted.

(g) That his limbs are well formed and developed.

(h) That there is free and perfect motion of all the joints.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort St. George, June 3, 1926.
(Fort St. George, June 3, 1926)

No. 11.—In considering the Accountant General's Audit Report on the accounts of this Presidency for 1921-25, the Public

Accounts Committee made the following remarks:—

"In regard to the statement and analysis of objections relating both to the Public Works and to other departments, the Committee understands that a large number of outstanding objections are caused by the failure of the officers concerned to submit detailed contingent bills within a reasonable time after the money has been drawn, and considers that the attention of all departments should be drawn to this undesirable delay."

2. Contingent charges are of two classes, viz., contract contingencies and non-contract or counter-signed contingencies. The responsibility for the effective control of contingent expenditure rests primarily with heads of offices. For expenditure on contract contingencies, their responsibility is complete; for an external control is exercised over this class of expenditure so long as the contract grant is not exercised. In the case of counter-signed contingencies, controlling officers as well as heads of offices are required to scrutinize the expenditure.

3. The recommendation of the Public Accounts Committee extracted in paragraph 1 above applies only to counter-signed contingencies. The following procedure is adopted in drawing bills for these charges:—

The money is actually drawn from the treasury by the head of the office, or the drawing officer, on an abstract bill of contingent charges which shows the number of sub-vouchers pertaining to each entry, the amount being given only when a sub-voucher is for more than Rs. 25.

This abstract bill is passed by the treasury officer and after payment it is sent to the office of the Accountant General where it is examined to see that it is drawn by an officer who has authority to draw such bills, that the summations are correct and that there is nothing extraordinary or unusual in it. The amounts not admitted in audit are then entered in the objection book.

At the end of each month, the drawing officer should prepare from the entries in his contingent register a detailed bill for all contingencies of the kind mentioned in Appendix E of the Madras Treasury Manual, Volume II. In this bill is given a description of each charge which requires explanation; the numbers of the sub-vouchers are entered against each item, and at the foot is a summation of the number and date of every abstract bill issued at the treasury and of the sub-vouchers included in each. The amount charged in the detailed bill must agree with the amount actually drawn from the treasury within the month. This detailed bill is submitted to the controlling officer, or, if there be no controlling officer, to the Accountant General direct, with all sub-vouchers above Rs. 25, a certificate endorsed on the bill taking the place of the smaller vouchers.

The countersigning officer reviews the bill and despatches it to the audit office with the vouchers. He also communicates to the disbursing officer any stoppages which he orders.

On receipt of the detailed contingent bill in the Audit Office, it is examined and steps are taken to remove objections from the Objection book.

4. It is clear that delay in the preparation and submission of the detailed bills may occur either with the drawing officer or with the countersigning officer. Heads of departments are requested to insist upon all heads of offices under their control the importance of avoiding delay in the preparation and scrutiny of these bills and to see that they reach the controlling officer within the ten days laid down in paragraph 104 of the Madras Treasury Manual, and are forwarded to the audit office by the 25th of the month following that in which the expenditure was incurred.

NOTIFICATIONS.

For St. George, June 22, 1926.

No. 140.—The following resolution of the Government of India is republished:—

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

Dated, the 24th June 1926.

No. 141-F. (9).—The Government of India have received an application from the Bombay Millowners' Association requesting that the Tariff Board, or some other Committee similarly constituted and with similar powers, may be directed to enquire into the manner of the present depression in the Bombay cotton textile industry and to suggest the measures which might be taken to restore it to prosperity.

2. The Government of India agree that the enquiry should be made, and consider that it should be held as soon as possible. The Tariff Board is, however, at present fully occupied with the statutory enquiry into the steel industry required by the Steel Industry (Investigation) Act, 1925. The Government of India have, therefore, decided to appoint a second Tariff Board for the purpose of the enquiry into the cotton textile industry, with the following terms of reference:—

(1) to investigate the condition of the cotton textile industry in India, with special reference to the industry in Bombay and Ahmedabad;

(2) to examine the causes of the depression in the industry and to report whether they are of a temporary or permanent character;

(3) to ascertain, to the extent possible, and if so to what extent, the depression is due to the competition of other countries in the home and export trade;

(4) to report whether, having regard (i) to the fact that the industry has long been firmly established in India, and (ii) to the interests of the consumer and to all other interests affected,

(a) the industry is in need of protection,

(b) if so, in what form and for what period protection should be given; and

(c) to make any other recommendations that are germane to the subject.

3. The following gentlemen have agreed to serve on the Board:—

President.

R. Nageswari, Esq., C.S., C.A., I.C.S.

Members.

Haji Bahadur Panchi Haji Kishan Kaul, Esq., C.A.

N. S. Sahas Rao, Esq., M.A., Bar-at-Law, Principal and Professor of Economics, Sahasraji College, Mysore.

4. The headquarters of the Board will be at Bombay, but it will also visit such other places as it thinks necessary for the purpose of the enquiry. It will assemble at once and report to the Government of India at the earliest possible date. Commercial bodies, firms or persons interested in the enquiry should address their representations direct to the President, Tariff Board (Cotton Textile Industry Enquiry).

5. The Government of India trust that local Governments and Administrations will assist the Board at the assistance which it may require and will comply with any request for information which may be addressed to them by it.

6. The appended correspondence is published for general information:—

Letter from the Secretary, Bombay Millowners' Association, Bombay, No. 148/25-0 of 1926, dated Bombay, the 19th March 1926.

In continuation of Mr. N. N. Wadia's letter of the 22nd February and as reported in para D.O. No. 141-F. (9) I have the honour to submit for the consideration of the Hon'ble Member of the Commerce Department in the Government of India, a concise statement of my Committee's views in regard to the competition which India is at present meeting from Japan.

My Committee's views are so stated in a very few lines. They underline that the Indian Cotton Textile Industry is suffering from unfair competition from Japan by reason of the fact that Japan has not entered into the International Labour Conventions regarding hours of work and weekly holidays, and the employment of women and young persons at night. In 1918, an International Labour Conference was held at Washington. The object of that Conference was the second International Labour Conference which has since taken place was the improvement of the conditions of labour for the working classes of countries, members of the League of Nations, by the institution of an International Labour Code for the regulation of labour. One of the purposes of the successful inauguration and application of such a Code is that the chief industrial centres of the world should put into operation the Conventions passed at these two Conferences for, unless this is done, those countries which put into operation any conventions for improving labour conditions will be adversely affected when competing against countries which fail to improve their labour conditions in the same manner.

By far the most important Conventions passed at these International Conferences are those relating to hours of work and the non-employment of women at night.

These two Conventions were passed at the Washington Conference in 1919. The Hours Convention lays down a sixty-hour working week for workers in India and a fifty-seven-hour working week for workers in Japan. The Convention relating to women's employment lays down that women shall not be employed during the night in any public or private industrial undertaking. Japan and India were both represented at the Washington Conference and all the representatives of both the countries agreed to these two Conventions.

After the results of the Conference had been conveyed to them, the Government of India took immediate action, and the Factory Amendment Act of 1922 fulfilled India's obligations in respect of the two Conventions referred to above. Japan, on the other hand, has failed so far to carry out these two Conventions and has apparently no intention of doing so till that August 1924 at the earliest (July 1 to 10), with the result that her textile mills have an unfair advantage when competing against Indian textile mills owing to the fact that women are employed at night work, and working hours are longer than in Indian mills (note monthly statistics issued by Japan Cotton Spinners' Association). Owing to reason of these unfair advantages, Japan has been able to place increased quantities of yarn and piecegoods in India and in Indian export markets at prices to compete against which, Indian goods have had to run at a loss. My Committee maintains that when the Government of India referred these two Conventions, they themselves took upon themselves the duty of seeing that India's industries should not be unfairly protected owing to restrictions by her industrial competitors, and considering that immediate action should be taken to prevent the realization of the advantages Japan at present enjoys.

Since it is not possible to take effective steps against Japan through the International Labour Office, owing to the Convention not being of a satisfactory nature, my Committee consider, in the interests of Indian labour and the Indian textile industry, that additional duties should be imposed upon the imports of piecegoods and yarn from Japan so that India will be able to prohibit the employment of women at night and reduce the length of the working week for persons employed in conformity with the Hours Convention.

The extra import duty which should be imposed on Japanese piecegoods and yarn, my Committee maintain, should be equivalent to the approximate saving in cost of production which Japanese mills enjoy owing to not having ratified these Conventions. This would be estimated by calculating the saving in cost of production which Indian mills would have enjoyed if run under the same conditions as regard hours of labour and night work for women. My Committee are fully aware that double shift working is extremely permissible in all countries, but if night work for women was prohibited in Japan, double shift working for the textile industry would be just as impossible there as it has proved in Bombay owing to the non-delivery of steam labour. This fact is borne out by the statistics of the Japanese Master Cotton Spinners' Association which show that 64 per cent of the total workers employed in the cotton mills of Japan are women. The true gain to the Japanese cotton industry for the employment of women at night does not therefore only amount to the difference in the cost of female labour as against male labour on night work, but to the reduction in cost of production obtained by working double shifts as compared with single shifts.

My Committee suggest that, for the specific purpose outlined in the preceding paragraph, an ad hoc committee, including a representative of textile experts, should be immediately appointed and asked to report without delay. If the Government of India are prepared to agree to this suggestion, this Association would be prepared to render every assistance in order to enable the Committee to arrive at accurate conclusions as to the extent of the extra import duty which should be imposed, provided any restrictions they give is considered confidential.

Though for the past two or three years the textile industry of India has been very adversely affected owing to the Japanese rise of the Yen, the corresponding value of the rupee and other reasons, my Committee do not at the present juncture wish to make any claim for general protection. They consider that if subordinated from unfair competition, the Indian textile industry will at least be able to retain its home market.

Finally, my Committee wish to draw the attention of the Government of India to the difficult position of the cotton textile industry which is caused by the loss of five acres owned by the Chino Mills at Bombay City and Island. In the last three years, and the several years before, the cotton industry of Japan is the cotton industry of India is to secure the present state.

My Committee understand that the Hon'ble Sir Charles Innes will be in Bombay on the 1st April 1926, and they will be very pleased if he and, if possible, the Hon'ble Mr. Chudachid will kindly make it convenient to meet them on the afternoon on that day to discuss the points raised in this letter and in the Committee's Report.

Letter to the Secretary, Bombay Millowners' Association, Bombay, No. 211-T. (S), dated 12th, 13th and 14th March 1926.

I am directed to reply to your letter No. 211-T. (S) of the 9th March 1926. This letter contains a general statement of the views of your Committee in regard to the competition from Japan which the Indian Mill Industry is now experiencing and the Government of India will endeavour to be ready to meet in their reply.

2. Your Committee makes it clear that at present it does not think it necessary to make any request for what is called in general the "general protection" that is mentioned that the competition from Japan is in some respects unfair. It is evident that in some cases where in India has not only not carried out all the Conventions adopted by the International Labour Office at the Washington Conference in 1919 according to hours of work is in fact not in conformity, the employment of women during the night and the night work of young persons employed in industry in Japan, on the other hand, though in some respects at the Conference agreed in the above that it is, has neither modified its own position nor has it

The result is, in the opinion of your Committee, that Japanese industries have no unfair advantage over industries in India, and it is merely owing to this unfair advantage that they have been able to increase the sale of Japanese yarn and cloth in India. The further point is made that the Government of India must disclaim responsibility for this sale of things. "My Committee members," the letter states "that when the Government of India conferred these two Conventions they took upon themselves the duty of seeing that Indian industries should not be unduly prejudiced owing to restrictions by her industrial competition, and considering that immovable steps should be taken to prevent the continuation of the advantages Japan at present enjoys." Your Committee therefore holds that it is incumbent on the Government of India to "safeguard the Indian textile industry from this unfair competition" and with this object in view it suggests—

(1) that as long as Japan does not agree into effect the Convention mentioned above, Japanese yarn and piecegoods imported into India should be subjected to additional import duties;

(2) that the amount of these additional duties should be roughly equivalent to the reduction in the cost of production which Indian mills would be able to secure if they also were enabled to work double shifts by employing women at night; and

(3) that one of the Committees should be appointed to determine, in the light of the above principle, what rates duties should be imposed.

3. The case is stated above clearly raises issues of grave importance. For the proposals which have been submitted for the consideration of the Government of India contemplate the imposition of differential duties on yarn and piecegoods imported from Japan. If therefore they were accepted, they would involve the discrimination by the Government of India of the Trade Commission of 1925. For under that Commission, Japanese goods enjoy a reputation like India's "the lowest dutiable rates applicable to similar products of any other foreign origin" and the same treatment is accorded to Indian goods on importation into Japan. Your Committee will readily agree that it would be a most serious step to denounce the Commission, and if the Government have felt compelled to reject the reasons advanced in support of this step to the effect strategy, they are justified, that your Committee will suggest that they have done so and in any conditions spirit, but in any event, they should be sure of their ground.

4. I am first therefore to make it clear that the Government of India are unable to accept the implied assumption in your letter that by ratifying and carrying into effect the Convention a decreasing hours of work, the employment of women at night and the night work of factory women, they placed at any rate the Bombay mill industry in a worse position towards Japan than it had been before. Government do not consider that this statement corresponds with the history of events. The Factories Act of 1911 prohibited the employment of women under 14 by night in all factories and it also prohibited the employment of women by night in all factories except cotton spinning and pressing factories. In consequence, the restrictions of the two Conventions relating to the night work of women and the night work of young persons did not create any disadvantage to those persons of the Factories Act which regulates the conditions of employment in the Bombay Mills, and in fact no such amendment was made when the Act was revised in 1922. It is true that the ratification of the Convention concerning hours of work did somewhat in some degree affect the Indian Factories

Act in 1922. But that amendment did not affect the position in the mill industry of Bombay. For the Factories Act already read the hours of work from 12 to 10 before the Convention was signed by the Government of India with the approval of the Legislature in 1922 and long before the Indian Factories Act was amended in 1922. In this connection, I am to remind you of the amendment suggested by your Committee to the Factories Act in 1922 in March 1926. In that amendment your Committee stated that one of the principal defects made by the 1911 Act was when they went on strike in January 1926 was a reduction of daily hours of work from 12 to 10. Your Committee said that it had agreed to the demand which it considered to be fair, and it went on to ask that a similar limitation should be enforced by law on textile mills in other parts of India. And while the Convention was cited in support of the prayer contained in your amendment, Government were unable to establish a ten-hour day in Indian factories on the ground that such a step would reduce the interests of capital and labour in India. The passing of the Factories Act of 1922 did not involve a reduction of the hours of work in the Bombay textile mills, so that it is clear that the ratification of the Convention effected by your Committee did not affect any material alteration in the law applicable to employment in the textile mills. It therefore follows that the basis for the case of your Committee, as it is stated in your letter, disappears.

5. The being so, the Government of India do not propose to comment at length on the implications of your argument that because the Government of Japan has not ratified the Convention, the Government of India would be justified in imposing additional duties on yarn and piecegoods imported from Japan. But they must point out that there is no obligation on any Government to ratify a draft Convention adopted by a Conference of the International Labour Organisation, even though its ratification by the Government may be required in the draft Convention. The whole basis of the Conference is that merely draft Conventions are adopted. Under article 46 of the Peace Treaty, each State which is a member of the International Labour Organisation undertakes to bring the draft Convention within one year before the competent authorities for the enactment of legislation or other action. If no legislation or other action is taken a recommendation is to be followed, or if a draft Convention fails to obtain the consent of the competent authorities concerned, no further obligation rests on the State in question. In this connection, I am to refer you to a discussion of the whole question in Chapter II of the Report of the Commission on International Labour Legislation printed in Bulletin of Indian Industries and Labour No. 4, 1921. The suggestion of your Committee, therefore, involves the conclusion that the measure by the Government of Japan of discarding expressly given in it in a treaty to which both Japan and India were parties should be regarded as justifying the Government of India in denouncing another treaty between the two countries. Your Committee will admit that what it is put in this form the conclusion is one which it is scarcely possible for the Government of India to accept and which, if it were adopted, might have far-reaching consequences.

6. For these reasons, the Government of India regret that they cannot accept as valid the statement of the case submitted in your letter, and they must make it quite clear that they are unable to agree to your Committee's proposal that the case for imposing duties (on proposed to prevent protection?) should be accepted as established, and that a Committee should forthwith be appointed merely for the purpose of determining the amount of those duties. At the same time, the present difficulty of the Mill industry are a matter of much concern to the Government of India, and they are anxious to do what they can to assist the Millowners to find the right solution of these difficulties. Their position is that they recognize that the Mill industry, especially in Bombay City, has been passing through a period of depression. They recognize that the import of Japanese yarn and piecegoods has been increasing rapidly. They recognize that Japanese Millowners have an advantage over Indian Millowners in that they work double shifts, and they are willing to believe that the working of double shifts in Japan is facilitated by the fact that the employment of women at night is not prohibited. They are prepared to admit therefore that there is a prima facie case for enquiry. But they hold that the enquiry should be a comprehensive enquiry, and that the whole field should be opened to the body entrusted with it. For instance, whether it be called protection or merely self-protection, must embrace the years of cotton pools (which is still exceptionally high) for the Indian commerce, and the Government of India are unable to agree to any course that would have this result unless and until the necessity of that course is established by a comprehensive imported enquiry. In their view, the private sector precludes the prescription of remedies, and they are not yet satisfied that the present condition of the Mill industry in Bombay is solely due to competition from Japan.

1. Mr. Chaudhali will have left for England before we receive this letter but I am to say that the Hon. Mr. Chaudhali leaves will be in England from 1st to 4th April 1926, and will be pleased to arrange an interview with your Committee.

CERTIFICATE No. 117,192 of 1926, given on 19th May 1926, under the Bombay Mills Association, Bombay, to the Hon. Mr. Chaudhali, M.A., M.L.A., I.C.S., Member for the Government of India, Department of Commerce, India.

Arising out of the representations made to the Government of India by the Association during the last two years, and as a direct result of the two conferences which took place on the 1st and 2nd April between yourself and the Committee of the Bombay Mills Association, I am instructed to request that the Government of India may be pleased to direct the Tariff Board or some other Committee similarly constituted, and with similar powers, to enquire into the causes of the present serious depression in the Bombay Cotton Textile Industry and to suggest the measures which might be taken to remove this important indigenous industry in prospect.

2. In the Association's letter No. 1168/118, dated the 7th October 1924, the Government of India were urged to abolish the Export Duty and it was further stated that after the abolition of the Export Duty the Cotton Mill Industry found itself in need of protection against competition from countries which had ignored the Washington Convention regarding hours of labour, or which enjoyed indirect benefits arising to depressed exchange or other circumstances, this Association might possibly ask for a enquiry.

3. The abolition of the Export Duty has unfortunately been insufficient to avert the advantages enjoyed by other countries owing to depressed exchange, inferior conditions of labour, double shift working, employment of women at night, indirect subsidies, etc., and the Association therefore request that Government may be pleased to institute an early and comprehensive enquiry as intimated in the first paragraph of this letter.

And whereas in a suit in the High Court of Judicature at Port William in Bengal, No. 2947 of 1921, entitled Administrators of Bengal and another, v. Captain R. Welch Johnson and others, it was declared that the objects of the trust in the matter of the Silver Wedding Fund should be "the education and sustenance of children and dependants of Indian officers and soldiers (including non-combatants) who rendered military service under the Crown during the Great War or took part or may hereafter take part in subsequent warlike operations." And it was ordered and decreed that the defendants, the Administrators of the said Fund, give effect to the objects of the said trust in the manner hereafter defined, and apply the said Fund towards educating those who come under the said objects as extended by the said decree, and the Administrators of the Fund have accordingly applied to the Governor-General in Council to amend the said Notification No. 2132 of 1921.

A Bill to declare the Kirkampudi B and C Estates, Dattamuru and Rayavaram Estates to be imperible within the meaning of the Madras Imperible Estates Act, 1926.

WHEREAS it is expedient to declare that the Kirkampudi B and C Estates, Dattamuru and Rayavaram Estates, are imperible and that their proprietors cannot exercise unrestricted powers of alienation in respect thereof; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called 'The Kirkampudi B and C Estates, Dattamuru and Rayavaram Imperible Estates Act, 1926'.

Kirkampadi
B and O
Estates, Deotamara
and Rayavaram estates have to be merged in the Empire of the Madras
Imperial Estates Act,
1934.

Belongs.

2. Notwithstanding any decision of Courts, rule of law or enactment to the contrary, the Kirkampadi B Estate, except the village of Kirkampadi, Kirkampadi O Estate, Deotamara and Rayavaram Estates in the Gofavari district, are hereby declared to be imperishable estates within the meaning of the Madras Imperishable Estates Act, 1934, and shall in the hands of their respective present owners as well as of their heirs and successors be subject to the provisions of that Act.

3. This Act shall not affect any alienation, made or debt incurred before the commencement of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Rajah Sri Ravi Ramakrishna Ranga Rao Bahadur Gera, son of Maharaaj Sri Ravi Sri Venkata Sureshalingam Ranga Rao Bahadur Gera, s.s.s.s.s.s., Maharajah of Bellik, obtained by a Deed of Settlement, dated the 6th November 1910, from his father the Maharajah of Bellik the Estate of Kirkampadi B, the undivided half of the Estate of Kirkampadi C, Deotamara and Rayavaram Estates. The said Rajah Sri Ravi Ramakrishna Ranga Rao Bahadur has purchased the other undivided half of the Estate of Kirkampadi O under Deeds of Sale, dated 6th February 1917 and 31st August 1918.

The said several estates were considered to and formed part of the ancient, imperishable and inalienable, principality of Pudukottai, running as far back as the 16th century. The descendants of the ancient family which held the same were governed by custom and the law of primogeniture. It was with one of the descendants of this ancient family that the present settlement was made by the British Government.

The Maharajah of Bellik was the holder of the 'ancient unalienable and imperishable estate known as 'The Zamindari of Bellik' which passed of the nature of Raj or principality and the family of the said Maharajah of Bellik is governed by the custom and law of primogeniture.

The Maharajah of Bellik conferred upon his said second son Rajah Sri Ravi Ramakrishna Ranga Rao Bahadur Gera the above-mentioned estates for the purpose of the said Rajah Sri Ravi Ramakrishna Ranga Rao Bahadur Gera maintaining the status of the family.

The said Kirkampadi B and O Estates, Deotamara and Rayavaram Estates, which formed part of the ancient, imperishable and inalienable estates governed by the custom and law of primogeniture have thus passed into a family governed by the same custom and law and are held by a member of an ancient family.

The said estate yield an annual income of Rs. 1,00,505-6-7 and paying a pottah of Rs. 24,169 (3-5 to Government. The said Rajah Sri Ravi Ramakrishna Bappa Rao Bahadur Gera, who is the sole owner of the properties, has expressed his desire and intention that the estates should be held as an impartible and inalienable estate, governed by the law of primogeniture, that they should not be divided and that the family custom, status, dignity should be upheld as his law, and the present one falls within the principles underlying the enactment of the Madras Act II of 1924 and the Maharajah of Bobbili and the present Rajah of Kollur agree of set consent to the said Kiriappadi B and C Estate, Dostanpur and Rayavaram being treated as impartible and inalienable to enable the family of the holder to preserve the dignity, status and sphere of usefulness. The said Rajah Sri Ravi Ramakrishna Bappa Rao Bahadur has at present only one son, his eldest son has been given away in adoption to the Rajah of Asipudi and thereby ceased to belong to the family; as there is no legal impediment in the way of a Legislature enacting, it is desirable that these estates should be included in Annexure (1) to the Schedule to the Impartible Estates Act II of 1924.
